Anno V.

Jacobi II. Regis.

An Act of Supply for His Majesty for The Support of His Army.

Whereas the unnatural Usurpation of the Prince of Orange, seconded by Your Majesties Rebellious Subjects in England hath prevailed so far as to endanger the loss of Your Majesties Kingdom of Ireland, by the invasion of Forreigners and Rebels; had not the Courage and Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Tyrconnel (Your Majesties Deputy here) seconded by the unanimous resolution of Your Majesties Loyal Subjects in this Kingdom, prevented the same.

And Whereas it was thought absolutely necessary to raise a far greater Army on that occasion, than Your Majesties Revenue here could maintain; which Army must still be kept on foot, the danger of Invasion not being yet over.

And Whereas notwithstanding the great supplies of Money and Arms sent into this Your Kingdom by His Most Christian Majesty, We have reason to fear that Your Majesty may yet want more supplies on so great and expensive an occasion. We do therefore think fit to raise (towards the payment of Your Majesties said Army) twenty thousand pounds sterling per month for thirteen months, computing each month according to the Calendar, which in the whole will amount to two hundred and sixty thousand pounds sterling, to be laid as a Land-Tax on the whole Kingdom.

Be it therefore Enacted. And it is hereby Enacted, by His Most Excellent Majesty, with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this Present Parliament Assembled, and by Authority of the same, That the said sum of Twenty thousand pounds sterling, be Taxed, Assessed, Distributed, Raised and Levied upon all the Houses, Lands, Tythes, Gleabs, Improvements, Tenements and Hereditaments in Ireland, in and throughout the several Cities, Towns and Counties in this Kingdom, every month, for thirteen months, to be computed according to the Calendar, and the same to begin from the first day of July One thousand six hundred eighty nine, according to the several Rates and Proportions, and in the manner hereafter expressed.

That is to say, the County of Dublin, seven hundred ninety seven pounds two shillings and three pence sterling per month.

And be it further Enacted, that the several and respective Commissioners hereby appointed, for the several Counties and Cities aforesaid, shall within Ten days, next ensuing the passing of this Act, or as soon as conveniently may be, meet together in the chief Town in each of the said Counties, or some other convenient place (by the said Commissioners for that purpose to be appointed) which said Commissioners or any three or more of them, giving convenient Notice to the rest, of such time and places of their meeting, are hereby required and authorized, in Order to the effectual and timely putting in Execution the Contents hereof, to divide and apportion the said Summ hereby made payable, out of each Respective County, and City, in as equal and Impartial manner, as they can according to the manner and forme hereafter Expressed, that the said Summs shall be equally assessed upon all the Lands and Houses, Tythes, Gleaves, Improvements, Tenements and Hereditaments, within the several Towns, Divisions, Baronies, and Parishes, within the Respective Counties and Places aforesaid; according to the Summs charged upon the Respective cities and counties aforesaid; in the most indifferent way that the said Commissioners or the greater Number of them so Assembled shall agree upon.

And to the End that no difference may arise in any case between Landlord, Tenant, and Occupier, (which

of them should bear the said Charge; and forasmuch as it would be hard, that the Tenants should bear any proportion of the said sum, considering that it is very difficult for the Tenant to pay his Rent in these distracted times. It is hereby declared, that the Tenant or Occupier where the same is in tenancy, shall not be liable to the said Charge, otherwise than that he shall pay the proportion falling upon his Lands, Houses, Tythes, Gleabs, Improvements, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and to be allowed the same out of his Rent, any Clause, Article, Proviso, Condition or Covenant in any Lease, Grant, or Conveyance heretofore made, to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that what payment shall be made by any Tenant, Farmer, or Occupier in pursuance hereof, shall be allowed him by his Landlord, and that for the same he shall be acquitted of so much of his Rent as he shall so pay, and that such payment shall be as effectual, to all intents and purposes, as if the same were paid to the Landlord, or to any other person or persons unto whom the Rent shall be due.

Provided, that if the Lease or Leases, by which such Tenant, Farmer or Occupier doth enjoy his Lands or Houses, Tythes, Gleabs, Improvements, Tenements and Hereditaments, be so beneficial, that the Lands, Tythes, Gleabs, Improvements, Tenements, and Hereditaments Demised, be lett at half value or less, and the same appearing to the Commissioners, that such Tenant, Farmer or Occupier, shall, upon his own account, bear an equal share of the said Tax, without expecting any allowance for the same, from his Landlord. And if it shall happen that any of the aforesaid Tax be laid on any Lands, or Houses, Tythes, Gleabs, Improvements, Tenements and Hereditaments that are waste or insolvent, and not sufficient to answer the same, that the said House, and Land, Gleabs, Tythes, Improvements, Tenements, and Hereditaments, shall remain charged therewith,

With, and that in such case it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to sett such Houses, and Lands, Tythes, Gleabs, Impropropriations, Tenements and Hereditaments to the best advantage, and shall continue under such Leases untill the Respective Proportions, falling upon such Houses and Lands, Tythes, Gleabs, Impropropriations, Tenements, and Hereditaments, be raised and levied.

And that the severall and respective Commissioners hereby appointed, in the severall and respective Counties and Cities, shall meet together, as occasion shall be, from time to time: And that the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, shall choose and nominate two or three, or more (if they shall think fit) of the honest and able Inhabitants, in the severall and respective Baronies, Towns and Parishes aforesaid; and them to appoint to take a particular survey or estimate of each mans Estate, and to return the said survey or estimate thereof, under their hands, to the said Commissioners, or to such person or persons of them, as shall be by the said Commissioners appointed to receive the same. In which survey or estimate, all due respect is to be had, to value and rate each Town, Land, Tote, Ballyboe, quarter, division, or denomination of Land, and the said Tythes, Gleabs, Impropropriations, Tenements, and Hereditaments, according to the value, quantity, quality and goodness of the same. And, in order thereunto, the said Commissioners, upon the return of the said estimate, or survey, are to ascertain what the said respective Houses, Lands, Tythes, Gleabs, Impropropriations, Tenements and Hereditaments (according to the goodness or badness, by a just rule of proportion) shall pay, taking care that the bad and course Land be not charged or burthened with the like summe, that the profitable Lands, of better value and worth are, or ought to bear; and also to appoint and ascertain the share and proportion due out of the said respective Houses, Lands, Tythes, Gleabs, Impropropriations, Tenements and Hereditaments, according according to the said returns; and to amend any mistakes therein, as they are authorized to do, if they see cause.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that the several Summs of Money so Assessed, in the several Counties and Cities of this Kingdom, shall be Received and Levied by and paid unto such person and persons, and no other, as by his Majesties Chief Commissioners of the Revenue in this Kingdom, or by any three of them, shall be appointed to Levy and Receive the same.
